WHY SPONSOR?

"We seldom rise to the occasion, we often fall to the level of our training"
-LTC Dave Grossman (Ret.)

Tactical Medicine as its own specialty a relatively new topic within the world of pre-hospital medicine. Together with operational medicine community, we are creating opportunities to increase awareness, collaboration and training. This competition is a great opportunity to bring like minded individuals together, and support a cause greater than self.

The event has been broken into a training day and competition day, allowing attendees and competitors the opportunity to increase knowledge and refine their craft. Your support of this cause will save lives!

The event will be held in Charleston, SC this year.

Saturday OCT 11 - Training Day

Sunday OCT 12 - Is Competition Day!
